

“THE CAUSE OF A
PERSON’S POVERTY
IS NOT YOURS
TO QUESTION.
THE FACT A PERSON IS POOR IS THE REASON YOU HELP.”

EILEEN O’CONNOR

OUR LADY’S NURSES FOR THE POOR

CENTENARY MASS OF THANKSGIVING

ST MARY’S CATHEDRAL
10AM SATURDAY, 13 APRIL 2013

For 100 years, Our Lady's Nurses for the Poor – fondly known as the 'Brown Nurses' has quietly provided healthcare, advocacy and friendship for the poor and disadvantaged throughout Sydney, Brisbane, Newcastle and Wollongong. Please join us in celebrating the centenary of this unique ministry. For more information, please contact Our Lady's Nurses for the Poor on 02 9665 6331 or centenary@ourladynurses.org.au